PARVANA

FAMILY

Family is very important in war. Sometimes they're the only thing you have left. So sometimes you need to fight back.

Parvana risks her life to go outside and get food.

Parvana risked going outside to get food because she knew her family needed it.

"Mother appears at the soldiers, pounding them with her fists. She grabbed Father's arm and tried to pull him out of their grasp." (pg 33)

Mother is a strong woman because in a difficult situation in her life she risked her life to try and save her husband from being taken away.

Parvana

Parvana is brave and courageous because she turned to help her family.

Parvana is a risk taker because she went outside even though she thought she was going to get caught.

"Everyone would see her face." They would know she wasn't a boy!" (pg 72)

"Parvana shook her head, then changed her mind. If this was the last she would see of her hair, then she wanted to see it for as long as she could." (pg 69)

Parvana is brave because she is able to change her mind even when she was afraid just to help her family in a difficult time.

"Out on the street, she kept waiting for people to point at her and call her a fake. No one paid any attention to her at all. The more she was ignored, the more confident she felt." (pg 72)

Parvana went out, though she thought she was going to be caught and beaten up, she still did it anyway.

Nooria

Nooria has strength because she stands up for what she believes in.

Nooria is a person who mostly say's things that come up to her mind.

"Look at my future here! I'm living under the Taliban. I'm tired of looking after little ones. My school happens seldom, they're a dream. There's no future for me here." (pg 133)

Nooria has strength in what she believes in because she will go to school even though she has to get married to a guy she hasn't meet and move to another place.

"You look less ugly as a boy than you do as a girl." (pg 71)

Nooria sometimes says hurtful things because she doesnt think before she speaks.

Mrs Weera

Mrs Weera is a caring person because she look's after mother and helps Parvana's family.

Mrs Weera is a gleeful person

"Then it's a good thing I'm stopping by to take care of her." (pg 60)

Mrs. Weera is caring because she took care of mother when she was depressed.

"Do you like the knees? There we go," Mrs. Weera still talked like she was out on the hockey field, urging everyone to do their best." (pg 61)

Mrs. Weera is happy person because when Parvana and her family are miserable she encourages them.

Father

Father is an educated man and also he studied overseas, the taliban hated that.

Father is a accepting person, because he will accept you no matter what you look like.

"Now you are both my daughter and my son." (pg 188)

Father is an accepting person because even though Parvana looks like a boy now he accepts her as the way she is just seeing her again for the first time.

"Afghanistan doesn't need your foreign ideas!" (pg 33)

The taliban hated educated and people who studied from foreign countries. Father is a threat to the taliban because he is one of the very few who are educated and studied overseas.

RIGHTS OF WOMEN

The taliban are sexist, they think that women are less than men.

The taliban took away the rights of women but not letting them have an education.

The taliban doesn't think that women have a right to work. So they force them to stop and lock them up in their own houses.

"Their mother had been kicked out of her job as a writer for a Kabul radio station." (pg 9)

The taliban took away girls in Afghanistan's education because they believed that girls shouldn't go to school and that they should stay at home.

"They even forbade girls to go to school." (pg 9)

FREEDOM

War takes away people's freedom. The taliban took away [illegible] freedom [illegible] Afghanistan's

The taliban took away people's freedom [illegible] to do [illegible] and they [illegible] the whole [illegible] girl [illegible]

"The taliban [illegible] ordered all the girls and women in Afghanistan to stay inside their homes." (pg [illegible])

The taliban [illegible] made [illegible] and can [illegible] outside [illegible]

WAR

War makes people do strange things to survive.

War has made cities turn into ruins

Kabul used to be beautiful but war has made it turn into something horrible because of the destruction

"Kabul has more land mines than flowers." (pg 111)

During war Parvana had to dig up bones to get enough money to help her family

"These are unusual times. They call for ordinary people to do unusual things to get by." (pg 118)

PARVANA

Family

Anything
Parvana is willing to do anything for her family

Family is the most important thing during bad times.

"Parvana watch helplessly as her father was dragged down the stairs" P33

I interupt the capture of her father is to show what happens when family is lost and shows the important of it. The terrical income her father brings in is just disguises to show how great the loss is.

"If anybody asks about you, we'll say that you have gone to stay with an aunt in Kunduz." P65

Them having to have plans or precautions means that there is a risk.

Torture

Written
They use physical forms of torture instead of communication.

Staying at home
Staying at home for long periods of time would be torture.

"She was always glad to go outside, even though it meant sitting for hours on a blanket" P11

This proves the they always seek freedom from their home, its like a prison.

"All of a sudden, one of the soldiers took out a sword, raised it above his head and brought it down on the man's arm" P17

In this example the Taliban don't reason, they are ruthless.

Parvana

Mature
Parvana is very mature because she is able to take on alot of responsibility at her adolence age.

Active and Presistent
Parvana shows this when she goes continuously goes to the market and knows that she needs to work or her family isn't going to survive.

"It has to be your decision," Mrs Weera said. "We can force you to cut off your hair, but you're still the one who has to go outside and act the part. We know this is a big thing we're asking, but I think you can do it." P67

This is Mrs Weera asking Parvana to turn into a boy and she then realises that she has to do this for the survival of her and the family. She said yes. You can also see that she doesn't want to do it but forces herself to.

"She kept hauling water. Her arms were sore, and the blisters on her feet started to bleed again, but she didn't think about that. She fetched water because her family needed it." P62

She gives the sense that she is willing to put her family before herself. She is letting enduring pain to support her family.

Nooria

Selfish
She is unempathetic and is uncompassionate in multiply occasions. She is unempathetic of her sister who is risking her life for her survival.

"There's no future for me here. At least in Mazar I can go to school, walk the street without having to wear a burqa." (P138)

This is when Nooria reassures them that she wants to go to Mazar but she shows her selfishness when she doesn't mention her parents or family at all.

Risk-Taker

"But you've never met him!" (P137)

This is ~~Nooria~~ Parvana telling Nooria that she should reconsider but Nooria goes anyway. This tells her she will do anything for her freedom.

Mrs Weera

Passionate
Mrs Weera is very passionate about her beliefs, she also is that headstrong that she tries to set up a news letter to support women's rights, she is constantly trying to get womens rights.

Caring and empathetic
She has nursed and cared multiply people back to health without asking anything in return, she has very good morals.

"A secret school for a small number of girls, a few hours a week. You must attend." P102

This shows Mrs Weera is active and isn't a person to give up. She won't stop untill she gets what she wants.

"In some parts of the country girls your age are getting married and having babies," she said. "I'm here if you need me."

This shows the Mrs Weera is understanding and thoughtful of her situation, she also understands that she also needs to be independent at times.

Mother

Weak mind
Mother is emotionally impacted very easy and suffers depression.

Resourceful
When mother is thinking on how to survival she is thinking now and long-term is no thought of.

"Mothers spent the day lying down. She kept her faced to the wall and didn't speak to ~~them~~ anyone." P10

In the quote mother is recovering from the lost of her husband. She takes days to recover and leaves her children to defend themselves. She doesn't seem to cope well with it.

"They were going to turn her into a boy"

Even though Parvana uses the arguement the she'll grow up and not look like a boy, Mother saids that is later and they now have to worry about now.

Freedom

Oppresion of women
Women are enprisoned by rules and their own house can be thought of as a jail cell. They seek freedom from this.

Not only ~~women~~ Trapped
Not only women are trapped by the Taliban, everyone is because many people fall into a wretched trap where they can't leave the country.

"Ever since she had been forced out of her job, Mother's temper grew shorter everyday." P26

This temper Mother grows is also a sign of anger. The anger is from her not being able to do anything, therefore they seek freedom.

"With each bomb they got poorer. Now they lived together in one small room."

This makes an example of the loop of poverty. They get poorer and can't get richer as there are [illegible] to try to leave the [illegible].

War

No one wins in war
In past wars it has created mass displacement, poverty and serious issues.

Survival
~~The war~~ Civilians can't stop a war so they have to survive it.

This shows what has been lost in war. Did the Taliban turn it into a base? did they lose men taking it? yes and the occupants would have been killed.

"until they came to areas of Kabul of the ~~most~~ ... most heavily destroyed by rockets" P106

This inform us that they are just getting by, therefore survival. What is effect this the Taliban and they got here though war.

"I'll make more money this way than I did as a tea boy, but it's not enough to make a real difference." P110
