Family is very important in war. Sometimes they're the only thing you have left. So sometimes you need to fight back.

Parvana risks her life to go outside and get food.

Mother is a strong woman because in a difficult situation she risked her life to try and save her husband from being taken away.

“Mother sprang at the soldiers, pounding them with her fists. She grabbed Father's arm and tried to pull him out of their grasp.” (pg 33)

Parvana risked going outside to get food because she knew her family needed it

Parvana is brave and courageous because she turned to help her family.

Parvana is a risk taker because she went outside even though she thought she was going to get caught.

“Everyone would see her face. They would know she wasn't a boy!” (pg 72)

“Parvana shook her head. If this was the last she would see of her hair, then she wanted to see it for as long as she could.” (pg 69)

Parvana is brave because she is able to change her mind when she was afraid, she goes to help her family in a difficult time.

“Out on the street, she kept on [illegible] No one [illegible] No one paid any attention [illegible] The more [illegible] confident she felt.” (pg 72)

Parvana went out, though she thought she was going to be caught and beaten up she still did it anyway.

Noorla has strength because she stands up for what she believes in.

Noorla is a person who mostly say's things that come up to her mind.

“Look at my life. I'm tired [illegible] My school [illegible] there's no future for me here.” (pg 138)

Noorla has strength in what she believes because she will go to school even though she [illegible] get married [illegible] another place.

“You look less ugly as a boy then you do as a girl.” (pg 71)

Noorla sometimes says hurtful things because she doesnt think before she speaks.

Mrs Weera is a caring person because she look's after mother and helps Parvana's family.

Mrs Weera is a gleeful person.

“Then it's a good thing I'm stopping by to take care of her.” (pg 60)

Mrs. Weera is caring because she took care of mother when she was depressed.

“Do your [illegible] for the [illegible] There we go,” Mrs. Weera still talked like she was out on the hockey field, urging everyone to do their best.” (pg 67)

Mrs. Weera is happy person because when Parvana and her family are miserable she encourages them.

Father is an educated man and also he studied overseas, the taliban hated that.

Father is a accepting person because he will accept you no matter what you look like.

“Now you are both my daughter and my son.” (pg 188)

Father is an accepting person because even though Parvana looks like a boy now he accepts her as the way she is first time seeing her again

“Afghanistan doesn't need your foreign ideas!” (pg 33)

The taliban hated educated and people who studied foreign countries. Father is a threat to the taliban because he is one of the very few who are educated and studied overseas.

The taliban are sexist, they think that women are less then men.

The taliban took away the rights of women but not letting them have an education.

The taliban took away girls in Afghanistan's education because they believed that girls shouldn't go to school and that they should stay at home

“Their mother had been kicked out of her job as a writer for a Kabul radio station.” (pg 9)

The taliban doesn't think that women have a right to work. So they force them to stop and lock them up in their own houses.

“They even forbade girls to go to school.” (pg 9)

War takes away people's freedom. The taliban took away the women in Afghanistan's freedom.

The taliban took away people's freedom because the taliban told them what to do and didn't give them a choice.

“The taliban had ordered all the girls and women in Afghanistan to stay inside their homes.” (pg 9)

The taliban took away women's freedom that they made them stay inside and can only go outside [illegible]

“They have been hidden because the taliban [illegible] books they [illegible]” (pg [illegible])

[illegible] the taliban [illegible] rid of it even though [illegible] things

War makes people do strange things to survive.

War has made [illegible] cities turn into ruins.

“These are unusual times. They call for ordinary people to do unusual things.” (pg 118)

During war Parvana had to dig up bones to get enough money to help her family

“Kabul has had more land mines than flowers.” (pg 111)

Kabul used to be beautiful but war has made it turn into something horrible because of the destruction

PARVANA

Parvana

Mature
Parvana is very mature because she is ~~and~~ able to take on alot of responsibility at her adolecence age.

Active and Presistent
Parvana shows this when she goes continuously to the market and knows that she needs to work or her family isn't going to survive

"It has to be your decision." Mrs Weera said. "We can't force you to cut off your hair, but you're still the one who has to go out- side and act the part. We know this is a big thing we're asking, but I think you can do it." P67

This is Mrs Weera asking Parvana to turn into a boy and she then realises that she has to do the [illegible] the survival of her and the family. She also can see that she doesn't want to do it herself [illegible]

"She kept hauling water. Her arms were sore, and the blisters on her feet started to bleed again, but she didn't think about that. She fetched water because her family needed it." P62

The gives the sense that she is willing to put her family before her self. She is [illegible] enduring pain to support her family

Nooria

Selfish
She is unempathetic and is uncompassionate in multiply occasions she is unempathetic & her sisters who is risking her life for her survival

"There's no future for me here. At least in Mazar I can ~~have~~ go to school, walk the street without having to wear a burqa." (P138)

This is when Nooria reassures them that she wants to go to Mazar but she shows her selfishness when she doesn't mention her parents or family at all.

Risk-Taker

"But you've never met him!" (P137)

This is ~~Nooria~~ Parvana telling Nooria that she should reconsider but Nooria goes anyway. This tells her she will do anything for her freedom.

Mrs Weera

Passionate
Mrs Weera is very passionate about her beliefs, she also is that headstrong that she tries to set up a news letter to support women's rights, she is constantly trying to get womens rights.

Caring and empathetic
She has nursed and cared multiply people back to health without asking anything in return, she has very good morals.

"A secret school for a small ~~number~~ number of girls, a few hours a week. You must attend." P102

This shows Mrs Weera is active and isn't a person to give up, she won't stop untill she gets what she wants.

"In some parts of the country girls your age are getting married and having babies," she said. "I'm here if you need me."

This shows the Mrs Weera is understanding and thoughtful of her situation, she also understands that she also needs to be independent at times.

Mother

Weak mind
Mother is emotionally impacted very easy and suffers depression.

Resourceful
When mother is thinking on how to survival, she is thinking now and long-term it's no thought of.

"Mothers lay down. She spent the day lying her face to the wall and didn't speak to any of them." [illegible]

In the quote mother is recovering from the loss of her husband. She takes days to recover and leaves the children to defend themselves, she doesn't seem to [illegible]

Even though Parvana was the breadwinner she still grew up and not look like a boy. Mother said she is talented and [illegible] have to worry about [illegible]

"They were going to turn her into a boy."

Freedom

Oppression of women
Women are emprisoned by rules and their own house can be thought of as a jail cell. They seek freedom from this.

Trapped
Not only ~~outtly~~ women are ~~[illegible]~~ trapped by the Taliban, everyone is because many people fall into a [illegible] trap where they can't leave the country.

"Ever since she had been forced out of her job, Mother's temper grew shorter everyday." P26

This ~~[illegible]~~ Mothers anger is also a sign of anger — the anger she has no anything therefore they seek freedom.

"With each bomb they got poorer. Now they lived together in one small room."

This ~~[illegible]~~ circles is an example of the loop of poverty. They get poorer and then they can't get richer and there are [illegible]

War

No one wins in war. It has in past wars displaced, created mass poverty and mental, social issues.

Survival
~~[illegible]~~ Civilians can't stop a war so they have to ~~[illegible]~~ survive it.

This shows what has been lost in war. Did the Taliban turn it into a base? Did they lose men taking it? Yes and the occupants would have been killed.

"until they came to the ~~most~~ areas of Kabul most heavily destroyed by rockets" P106

This inform us that they are just getting by, therefore survival. What is effect this the Taliban and they got here through war.

"I'll make more money this way than I did as a tea boy, but it's not enough to make a real difference." P110

Family

Anything
Parvana is willing to do anything for her family

Family is 'important' the most important thing during bad times

"Parvana watch helplessly as her father was dragged down the stairs" P33

I interupt the capture of her father is to show what happens when family is lost and shows the importance of it. The [illegible] income her father brings in is just disguised to show how great the loss is.

"If anybody asks about you, we'll say that you have gone to stay with an aunt in Kunduz." P65

Them having to have plans or precautions means that there is a risk.

Torture

Written
They use physical forms of torture instead of communication.

Staying at home
~~This~~ Staying at home for long periods of time would be torture.

"She was always [illegible] used to go out though, or [illegible] sitting on a blanket for hours" P10

This proves the [illegible] always seek power, it's their own [illegible] like a [illegible]

"All of a sudden the soldiers took out [illegible] above his head and brought them down [illegible]" P[illegible]

In this example the Taliban don't reason, they are ruthless.
